(c) The Chief Judge of inferior tribal courts shall oversee the administration of justice of inferior tribal courts, and must have a Juris Doctorate from an A.B.A. accredited law school and must be licensed to practice law in any state or federal jurisdiction.

(d) The Chief Judge of inferior courts shall be elected at large by eligible voters of the Oglala Sioux Tribe under ordinances promulgated by the Tribal Council, and shall serve a four (4) year term.

Section 5. Compensation. The Tribal Council shall have the power to establish the level of compensation for Justices of the Supreme Court and Judges of inferior tribal courts, provided that the compensation due to each Justice and Judge shall not be diminished during the Justice’s or Judge’s appointment.

Section 6. Removal. The Tribal Council may remove any Justice of the Supreme Court or any Judge of inferior tribal courts by a two-thirds vote for:

(a) Unethical judicial conduct;
(b) Physical or mental disability which prevent the performance of judicial duties;

(c) Persistent failure to perform judicial duties;

(d) Gross misconduct that is clearly prejudicial to the administration of justice.

Section 7. Vacancies. If there is any vacancy, the Tribal Council shall appoint a Justice of the Supreme Court or a new Judge of inferior tribal courts for the unexpired term. If the vacancy involves the Chief Judge of inferior tribal courts, the Tribal Council shall appoint a new Chief Judge who satisfies all requirements necessary for Chief Judge for the unexpired term.

ARTICLE VI - DISTRICT ORGANIZATION

Each district established under this constitution shall elect a president and such other officers as may be advisable to run concurrent with the terms of the representatives to the tribal council. The president shall call and preside over councils of the district whenever necessary for the consideration of matters of local interest. The various districts may consult with representatives of the Interior Department on all matters of local interest and make recommendations thereon to the tribal council or the superintendent or Commissioner of Indian Affairs, may undertake and manage local enterprises in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the preamble to this constitution, may levy assessments upon members of the district, may expend moneys in the district treasury for the benefit of the district, may keep a roll of those members of the tribe affiliated with the district, and may exercise such further powers as may be delegated to districts by the tribal council. The actions of the district councils shall not be inconsistent with the constitution and by-laws, and ordinances of the tribe.

ARTICLE VII - ELECTIONS

Section 1. All members of the Tribe 18 years or over, who have resided on the reservation for a period of one year immediately prior to any election shall have the right to vote.

Section 2. The time, place and manner of nomination and election of councilmen and any other elective officers of the council shall be determined by the tribal council by appropriate ordinances.
Section 3. The tribal council and officers shall be sworn into office the first meeting in December, commencing in 1998. The tribal council members elected in 1996, shall serve until the first meeting in December, 1998.

ARTICLE VIII - REMOVAL OF OFFICERS

Section 1. Any member or officer of the tribal council who is convicted of a felony or any other offense involving dishonesty shall forfeit his office.

Section 2. Any officer of the council or any councilman shall be subject to recall from office under due process of law for cause. Any complaint against any officer of the council or any councilman must be in writing and sworn to by the complainant. No person is to be impeached except by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the council after the accused has had due notice of the charges against him and an opportunity to be heard in his own defense.

ARTICLE IX - REFERENDUM

Upon a petition by a least on-third (1/3) of the eligible voters of the Oglala Sioux Tribe, or upon the request of a majority of the members of the tribal council, any enacted or proposed ordinance or resolution of the council shall be submitted to popular referendum, and the vote of a majority of the qualified voters voting in such a referendum shall be conclusive and binding on the tribal council.

ARTICLE X - LAND

Section 1. Allotted Lands. Allotted lands including heirship lands, within the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation, shall continue to be held as heretofore by their present owners. It is recognized that under existing law such lands may be inherited by the heirs of the present owner, whether or not, they are members of the Oglala Sioux Tribe. Like wise it is recognized that under existing law the Secretary of the Interior may, at his discretion, remove restrictions upon such land, upon application by the Indian owner, whereupon the land will become subject to State taxes and may be mortgaged or sold. The right of the individual Indian to hold or to part with his land, as under existing law, shall not be abrogated by anything contained in this constitution, but the owner of restricted land may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, voluntarily convey his land to the Oglala Sioux Tribe either in exchange for a money payment or in exchange for an assignment covering the same land or other land, as hereinafter provided.
Section 2. Tribal Lands. The unallotted lands of the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation and all lands which may hereafter be acquired by the Oglala Sioux Tribe or by the United States in trust for the Oglala Sioux Tribe, shall be held as tribal lands, and no part of such land shall be mortgaged or sold. Tribal lands shall not be allotted to individual Indians but may be assigned to members of the Oglala Sioux Tribe, or leased. Or otherwise used by the tribe, as hereinafter provided.

Section 3. Leasing of Tribal Lands. Tribal lands may be leased by the tribal council, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior for such periods of time as are permitted by law.

In the leasing of tribal lands preference shall be given, first, to Indian communities or cooperative associations and, secondly to individual Indians who are members of the Oglala Sioux Tribe. No lease of tribal land to a nonmember shall be made by the tribal council unless it shall appear that no Indian community or cooperative association or individual member of the tribe is able and willing to use the land and to pay a reasonable fee for such use.

Grazing permits covering tribal and may be issued by the tribal council, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, in the same manner and upon the same terms of leases.

Section 4. Grant of Standard Assignments. In any assignment of tribal lands which are now owned by the tribe or which may be hereafter purchased for the tribe by the United States, or purchased by the tribe out of tribal funds, preference shall be given, first, to heads of families which have no allotted lands or interests in allotted lands by shall have already received assignments consisting of less than 20 acres agricultural land, or their land or interests in land of equal value.

No allotted member of the tribe who may hereafter have the restrictions upon his land removed and whose land may thereafter be alienated shall be entitled to receive an assignment of land as a landless Indian.

The tribal council may, if it sees fit, charge a fee of $10.00 on approval of an assignment made under this section.

Assignments made under this section shall be for the primary purpose of establishing homes for landless Indians and shall be known as standard assignments.

Section 5. Tenure of Standard Assignments. If any member of the tribe holding a standard assignment of land shall, for period of two years, fail to use the land so assigned or shall use such land for any unlawful purpose, his assignment may be cancelled by the tribal council after due notice and an opportunity to be heard and the said land may be reassigned in accordance with the provisions of Section 4 of this article.

Upon the deaths of any Indian holding a standard assignment, his heirs or other individuals designated by his, by will, or written request, shall have a preference in the reassignment of the land, provided such persons are members of the Oglala Sioux Tribe who would be eligible to receive a standard assignment.

Section 6. Grant of Exchange Assignments. Any member of the tribe who owns an allotment or any share of heirship land or patent in fee land may voluntarily transfer his interest in such land to the tribe in exchange for an assignment, such land or land of equal value. If the assignee prefers, he may receive, in lieu of a specific tract of land, a proportionate share in a larger grazing unit.

Section 7. Leasing of Exchange Assignments. Exchange assignments may be used by the assignee or leased by him to Indian cooperative associations, to individual members of the tribe, or, if no individual Indian or Indian cooperative association is able and willing to rent the land at a reasonable fee, such assignments may by leased to non-Indians, in the same allotted lands.

Section 8. Inheritance of Exchange Assignments. Upon the death of the holder of an exchange assignment, such land shall be reassigned by the tribal council to his heirs or devisees, subject to the following conditions:

(a) Such lands may not be reassigned to any heir or devisee who is not a member of the Oglala Sioux Tribe, except that a life assignment may be made to the surviving widower, widow, or child of the holder of an assignment.

(b) Such lands may not be reassigned to any heir or devisee who already holds more than 1,280 acres of grazing land, or other land or interests in land of equal value, either under allotment or under assignment.

(c) Such lands may not be subdivided among heirs or devisees into units too small for convenient management. No area of grazing land shall be subdivided into units smaller than two and one-half acres. Except that land used for buildings or other improvements may be divided to suit the convenience of the parties. Where it is impossible to divided the issue to such heirs of devisees grazing permits or other interests in tribal lands of the same value as the assignment of the decedent.

(d) If there are no eligible heirs or devisees of the decedent, the land shall be eligible for reassignment in accordance with the provisions of Section 4 of this article.

Section 9. Inheritance of Improvements. Improvements of any character made upon lands may be bequeathed to inherited by members of the Oglala Sioux Tribe under such regulations as the tribal council shall provide. No permanent improvements shall be removed without the consent of the council.

Section 10. Exchange of Assignments. Assignments may be exchanged between members of the Oglala Sioux Tribe by common consent in such manner, as the tribal council shall designate.

Section 11. Use of Unassigned Tribal Land. Tribal land which is not leased or assigned, including tribal timber reserves, shall be managed by the tribal council for the benefit of the members of the entire tribe, and any cash income derived from such land shall accrue to the benefit of the tribe as a whole.

Section 12. Purchase of Land by Tribe. Tribal funds may be used with the consent of the Secretary of the Interior to acquire land under the following conditions:

(a) Land within the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation or adjacent to the boundaries thereof which is not now in Indian ownership may be purchased by or for the Oglala Sioux Tribe.

(b) Land owned by any member of the tribe who desires to leave the reservation permanently may be purchased by the tribe, under such terms as may be agreed upon.

Section 13. Method of Making Assignments. Applications for assignments shall be filed with the secretary of the tribal council and shall be in writing, setting forth the named of the person or persons applying for the land and as accurate a description of the land desired as the circumstances will permit. Notices of all applications received by the secretary shall be posted by him/her in the agency office and in at least three conspicuous places in the district in which the land is located for not less than 20 days before action is taken by the council. Any member of the Tribe wishing to oppose the before action is taken by the Council. Any member of the Tribe wishing to oppose the granting of an assignment shall do so in writing, setting forth his/her objections to be filed with the secretary of the tribal council, and may, if he/she so desires, appear before the council to present evidence. The Secretary of the Tribal Council shall furnish action taken by the council on applications for assignment of land and a complete record of assignments shall be kept in the agency office and shall be open for inspection by members of the Tribe.

ARTICLE XI - AMENDMENTS

The Constitution and Bylaws may be amended by a majority of the qualified voters of the Tribe voting at an election called for the purpose by the Secretary of the Interior, provided that at least thirty (30) percent of those entitled to vote shall vote in such election; but no amendment shall become effective until it shall have been approved by the Secretary of the Interior. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior to call an election on any proposed amendment, at the request of two-thirds (2/3) of the council, or upon presentation of a petition signed by one-third (1/3) of the qualified voters, members of the Tribe.

<tr>
<th>ARTICLE V - JUDICIAL POWERS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Section 1. The judicial powers of the Oglala Sioux Tribe shall be vested in a court or courts, which the tribal council may ordain or establish.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Section 2. The judicial power shall extend to all cases involving only members of the Oglala Sioux Tribe, arising under the constitution and by-laws or ordinances of the tribe, and to other cases in which all parties consent to jurisdiction.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Section 3. The Chief Judge shall be elected by the members of the tribe at large under ordinances promulgates by the tribal council.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

ARTICLE V of the Constitution shall be as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>ARTICLE V - JUDICIAL POWERS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Section 1. Creation. The judicial power of the Oglala Sioux Tribe shall be vested in one Supreme Court and in other inferior tribal courts established by the Tribal Council. The Supreme Court and other inferior tribal courts shall be independent from the Tribal Council and the Executive Committee, and no elected official exercising powers of the Tribal Council or the Executive Committee shall exercise powers vested in the Supreme Court or other inferior tribal courts.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Section 2. Jurisdiction. The judicial power shall extend to all cases, in law and equity, arising under the Oglala Sioux Tribe Constitution, the laws of the Oglala Sioux Tribe, or to all persons and property within the jurisdiction of the Oglala Sioux Tribe.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Section 3. Powers of the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court shall exercise the following powers:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(a) The Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction over any case on appeal from inferior tribal courts.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(b) The Supreme Court shall have the power to declare laws of the Oglala Sioux Tribe void if such laws are not in agreement of the Oglala Sioux Tribe Constitution. All decisions of the Supreme Court shall be in writing and shall be final.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(c) Justices of the Supreme Court must have a Juris Doctorate from an A.B.A. accredited law school and must be licensed to practice law in any state or federal jurisdiction.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(d) Justices of the Supreme Court shall be appointed to the Supreme Court by the Tribal Council and shall serve a six (6) year term.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Section 4. Powers of the Inferior Tribal Court. The inferior tribal court shall exercise the following powers:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(b) Inferior tribal courts shall have the power to declare the laws of Oglala Sioux Tribe void if such laws are not in agreement with the Constitution.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
(c) The Chief Judge of inferior tribal courts shall oversee the administration of justice of inferior tribal courts, and must have a Juris Doctorate from an A.B.A. accredited law school and must be licensed to practice law in any state or federal jurisdiction.

(d) The Chief Judge of inferior courts shall be elected at large by eligible voters of the Oglala Sioux Tribe under ordinances promulgated by the Tribal Council, and shall serve a four (4) year term.

Section 5. Compensation. The Tribal Council shall have the power to establish the level of compensation for Justices of the Supreme Court and Judges of inferior tribal courts, provided that the compensation due to each Justice and Judge shall not be diminished during the Justice’s or Judge’s appointment.

Section 6. Removal. The Tribal Council may remove any Justice of the Supreme Court or any Judge of inferior tribal courts by a two-thirds vote for:

(a) Unethical judicial conduct;

(b) Physical or mental disability which prevent the performance of judicial duties;

(c) Persistent failure to perform judicial duties;

(d) Gross misconduct that is clearly prejudicial to the administration of justice.

Section 7. Vacancies. If there is any vacancy, the Tribal Council shall appoint a Justice of the Supreme Court or a new Judge of inferior tribal courts for the unexpired term. If the vacancy involves the Chief Judge of inferior tribal courts, the Tribal Council shall appoint a new Chief Judge who satisfies all requirements necessary for Chief Judge for the unexpired term.

Should this amendment pass there will be separation of powers of the judiciary from the Tribal Council and the Executive Committee, the jurisdiction of the Tribe will be changed, and there will be a process to select and remove judges.
